INTRODUCTION

A 24-hour race preceded by 1 sprint race in support.

The 24H Le Mans Show is a Charity Race for Pet Association. All the profits are donated to an association, you will find the link to it on the discord.

The 24H Le Mans is a fun racing event, with talented and competitive drivers. Your primary goal, as a Team and a Driver, should always be to drive cleanly and safety while on track. All participants should strive to act professionally and demonstrate good sportsmanship at all times. We consider this to be mitigating misconduct on track, in chat, in the Discord Server or anywhere else. Derogatory, offensive or otherwise inappropriate language is prohibited in all communication forums; Race Control reserves the right to evaluate potential problems on a contextual basis.

STEWARDING

There will be live many stewarding in the all race

INCIDENT REPORTING

A report form will be available. These will require the timeslot in iRacing which Admin will then review during the race.

This system will be primarily used to identify intentional and/or malicious incidents, however there is a host of penalties that can be applied, which you can find below. The report form for an incident has to be filled in 5 minutes after the incident.

STEWARD PENALTIES

Custom rules/penalties:

- These custom penalties will lead into a drive-through penalty.
- 3 Warnings for a team in the same race will automatically result in a Drive-Through Penalty
- iRacing’s Sporting Code is in effect and will cover any other issues. We hope this will be enough to keep racing mostly sensible.

NEW FULL COURSE YELLOW PROCEDURE (same real)

Over these 24 hours an FCY is set up as in real life. Here are the explanations.

- 1- If a car crashes, it must reach the boxes by the track, towing is prohibited, unless the car can no longer be driven.
- 2- The race director will notify by written message in the race the installation of the FCY 10 seconds before
- 3- The race director will announce the count by voice: 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 FCY
- 4- The maximum speed on FCY for all cars is 100km/h (62miles)

The FCY will be deployed by the race direction depending on the circumstances. The race management cannot be blamed for its deployment.

FCY is tested on practice & qualifications 2 time !

the speed is 100kmh. The pit limiter is prohibited because the circuit is long, it could cause the breakage of your engines.

QUALIFS 24H LE MANS

The qualifications will be identical to the real 24 hours.

There will be 2 qualifying sessions:

- Wednesday June 9 (2h) : 10pm at 12am
- Thursday June 10 (2h) : 10pm at 12am

The crews which will not take part in the qualifications will be placed at the end of their category on the starting grid.

* The qualifications is open, all cars in the track. The number of laps is unlimited per car.

A free practice session will be offered on Tuesday June 8 : 8pm at 11pm

WEDNESDAY 9 JUNE
